

Streets of London

Ralph McTell

C G Am Em

Have you seen the old man in the closed down mar - ket,
Have you seen the old girl who walks the streets of Lon - don,
In the all night ca - fé at a quarter past ele - ven
Have you seen the old man outside the sea - man's mis - sion,

5 F C D7 G C

kick ing up the pa - pers with his worn out shoes? In his eyes you dirt in her hair and her clothes in rags? She's no time for same old man is sit - ting there on his own. Look - ing at the mem - 'ry fad - ing with the medal ribbons that he wears? In our win - ter

10 G Am Em F

see no pride, hand held loose - ly at his side, yes ter - day's talk - ing, she just keeps right on walk - ing, car ry - ing world o - ver the rim of his tea - cup, each tea lasts cit - y the rain cries a lit - tle pi - ty, for one more

14 C G7 C F

pa - per tell - ing yes - ter - day's news. So how can you her home in two car - ri - er bags.
an hour and he wanders home a - lone.
forgotten hero and a world that doesn't care.

19 C G7 C D D7 G G7

tell me you're lone - ly and say for you that the sun don't shine?

26 C G Am Em F

Let me take you by the hand and lead you through the streets of Lon - don I'll show you

31 C G7 C G Am G7 C

some - thing to make you change your mind.